New Song music camp

First-come first-served for up to 27 children!

Parents, this is a great chance for your child to explore the world of music in new and dynamic ways. In this week-long camp, children get hands-on experience with a variety of instruments and even make an instrument of their own to keep. With an emphasis on creativity and cooperation, campers will work together to form a band, write their own music, and then record it using professional recording equipment. Each camper will leave with a copy of their very own CD of original music!
