SANTA ROSA, CA (October 14, 2014) – Today, Wells Fargo Center for the Arts announced that the internationally acclaimed Beatles concert RAIN: A Tribute to the Beatles will have its Santa Rosa debut Monday, January 26 at 7:30 P.M. at the Ruth Finley Person Theater (50 Mark West Springs Road). In an exciting all new show described by the Associated Press as “the next best thing to seeing The Beatles,” RAIN: A Tribute to the Beatles performs the full range of The Beatles' discography live onstage, including the most complex and challenging songs that The Beatles themselves recorded in the studio but never performed for an audience. In addition to the updated sets featuring brand new LED, High-Definition screens and multimedia content, new songs have also been included with the launch of the 2014-2015 Tour. Together longer than The Beatles, RAIN has mastered every song, gesture and nuance of the legendary foursome, delivering a totally live, note-for-note performance that’s as infectious as it is transporting. From the early hits to later classics (“I Want To Hold Your Hand,” “Hard Day’s Night,” “Sgt. Pepper’s Lonely Hearts Club Band,” “Let It Be,” “Come Together,” “Hey Jude” and more), this adoring tribute will take you back to a time when all you needed was love, and a little help from your friends in a performance the Los Angeles Times calls, “A two-hour homage to pop music’s most brilliant gem.”

Tickets for RAIN: A Tribute to the Beatles are $75, $65, and $55 and go on sale Friday, October 17 at noon online at wellsfargocenterarts.org, by calling 707-546-3600 and in person at the box office at 50 Mark West Springs Road in Santa Rosa.
