Willie Nelson is extraordinarily popular with North Bay audiences—this 10th appearance at the Center follows 9 sold-out performances dating back to 1989. With a six-decade career and 200 plus albums, this iconic Texan is the creative genius behind the historic recordings of “Crazy”, “Red Headed Stranger” and “Stardust” taking his music and fans on a seemingly endless journey to places that are well worth the ride. Tickets for Willie Nelson and Family are on sale Friday, November 14, 2014 at noon and may be purchased for $85, $65, and $45 online at wellsfargocenterarts.org, by phone at 707.546.3600, and in person at 50 Mark West Springs Road in Santa Rosa.

Willie Nelson has earned every conceivable award as a musician and amassed reputable credentials as an author, actor and activist. Heroes, released May of 2012, was his first album for Legacy Recordings, and showcased new songs and deep country classics. The album spent five weeks at #1 on the Americana Radio Chart. Later that year he launched his book, Roll Me Up And Smoke Me When I Die, which landed in the Top 10 on The New York Times’ best-seller list. A road journal written in his inimitable, homespun voice, the book is a deeply personal look into the heart and soul of a unique man and one of the greatest artists of our time.

In 2013, Willie released two distinctive albums including April's Let's Face The Music And Dance, an album of deep pop country repertoire classics performed with transformative patented ease by Nelson and Family, his long-time touring and recording ensemble; and October's To All The Girls... which features 18 duets with music's top female singers including Dolly Parton, Mavis Staples, Sheryl Crow, Loretta Lynn, Wynonna Judd, Rosanne Cash, Alison Krauss, Miranda Lambert, Carrie Underwood, Emmylou Harris, Norah Jones, and Shelby Lynne.
