

Media Contact:
James Smith | Charles Zukow Associates
415.296.0677 or JamesS@charleszukow.com

Print quality images available: <http://wellsfargocenterarts.org/media/>

Wells Fargo Center for the Arts Announces the Return of Diana Krall
Tuesday, August 18

Multiple Grammy® Award Winning Jazz Pianist and Vocalist Performs
One Night Only in Santa Rosa as part of “WALLFLOWER WORLD TOUR”

Tickets on sale January 23, 2015 at noon

SANTA ROSA, CA (January 20, 2015) – Today, Wells Fargo Center for the Arts (50 Mark West Springs Road) announced the return of Multiple GRAMMY® Award-winning jazz pianist and world renowned singer, Diana Krall, to perform Tuesday, August 18, 2015 as part of her national “Wallflower World Tour.” This current tour, with new dates just added including this summer stop in Santa Rosa features material from Krall’s stunning new album, “Wallflower” which will be released on Verve Records Feb. 3. Tickets at $89.75 and $69.75, go on sale Friday January 23 at noon and will be available online at wellsfargocenterarts.org, by calling 707-546-3600, and in person at the box office at 50 Mark West Springs Road in Santa Rosa.

Multiple Award winning artist Diana Krall is one of the most accomplished and distinctive musicians in the world today with more sold albums than any other female jazz artist of the last 30 years earning her nine gold, three platinum and seven multi-platinum albums. Diana Krall is the only jazz singer to have eight albums debut at the top of the Billboard Jazz Albums chart. To date, her albums have garnered five Grammy® Awards, eight Juno® Awards and has also earned nine gold, three platinum and seven multi-platinum albums. Her unique artistry transcends any single musical style and has made her one of the most recognizable artists of our time.

Produced by 16-time Grammy® Award winning producer David Foster, “Wallflower” finds Krall breaking new ground with her interpretations of some of the greatest pop songs of all time. The album features popular classics from the late 60's to present day that inspired Krall in her early years, as well as an unreleased composition from Paul McCartney ("If I Take You Home Tonight"). Krall describes her new album, saying that, “A lot of the songs on ‘Wallflower’ are ones I grew up loving on the radio and on vinyl, songs I heard at home. These are songs I've been singing to myself for years... I'm a bit of a method actor and 'Wallflower' is a part I really wanted to play."

The "Wallflower World Tour" will feature Krall performing pop classics such as The Mamas and the Papas' "California Dreamin' ", the Eagles' "Desperado," and Bob Dylan's "Wallflower," which inspired the upcoming album's title track, among others. Krall will be accompanied onstage by Anthony Wilson (guitar), Dennis Crouch (bass), Stuart Duncan (fiddle), Karriem Riggins (drums) and Patrick Warren (Keyboards).

PRINT QUALITY IMAGES AVAILABLE:
<http://wellsfargocenterarts.org/media/>

###

About Wells Fargo Center for the Arts

A 501(c)(3) non-profit arts and events center, Wells Fargo Center for the Arts is home to world-class performances, nationally recognized education programs, contemporary visual art, and many popular civic events. The Arts Center is located in the heart of the Sonoma wine country and ranked among California's top performing arts presenters. Together with its resident companies, the Center presents more than 100 performances in music, dance, theater, renowned speakers, and comedy; provides education programs serving 30,000 children and adults; and hosts more than 1,000 community events a year. Owned and operated by the Luther Burbank Memorial Foundation, the Center relies on charitable community donations to achieve its mission – to enrich, educate, and entertain.
www.wellsfargocenterarts.org